Pinellas County residents can get COVID-19 test at no cost

- Walk-up and drive-through COVID-19 testing at no cost to residents.
- Residents do not need symptoms to be tested.
- Testing sites open Monday – Friday, 10 a.m. – 3 p.m.

Pinellas County residents can get a COVID-19 test at no cost to them starting Monday.

Community Health Centers of Pinellas (CHC) is offering the COVID-19 tests without restrictions at three testing sites. Residents do not need to have symptoms or be a CHC patient.

Testing sites will provide same day walk-ups and drive ups, but appointments are recommended to decrease wait times. Make an appointment by calling 727-824-8181 and selecting option 0.

The following testing sites will be open Monday - Friday, 10 a.m. - 3 p.m.

- 707 East Druid Road, Clearwater, FL 33756
- 7550 43rd Street North, Pinellas Park, FL 33781
- 1344 22nd Street South, St. Petersburg, FL 33712 (Johnnie Ruth Clarke Center)

A condensed electronic registration will be required at testing sites. Residents are asked to bring a valid ID.
