

The library facility is designated by the Pinellas County Supervisor of Elections office as an official polling place. During Early Voting periods and on Election Days, political campaign signs may be placed in the green area shown below. Political campaigns are asked to limit the placement of signs on the Seminole Campus to this area only:

